Honouring Our Veterans

Indigenous Veterans Day is observed on November 8, to recognize the courage and sacrifice of First Nation, Inuit and Métis people in military service.

It is estimated that, in total, over 12,000 Indigenous people have volunteered their services on the front lines, serving in all conflicts that Canada has been involved in.

COUNCIL IN COMMUNITY

Kidz Korner & Labatte House Relocation Celebration

We honour our Councillor Major Don Kennedy

Major Don Kennedy and his wife, HooJung Jones Kennedy, with MPP Monica Ciriello at the Remembrance ceremony hosted at the Wayne Gretzky Estate,

A proud Métis Veteran, Major Don Kennedy's 43-plus years of Canadian Forces service, including commanding the Royal Hamilton Light Infantry, are matched only by his deep dedication to the Métis community. Don was the founding president of our now Clear Water's Métis.

Currently our councillor, Don also serves as Co-Chair of the Korean War Veterans Advocates of Canada. Don has traveled at his own expense to present over 300 Ambassador for Peace Medals, erect national monuments, and tirelessly champion veterans' pensions, education, and recognition.

In recognition of this lifetime of service, the Republic of Korea President's "Civil Merit Medal", one of the highest honors from the Korean Government, and rarely awarded to a Canadian, will be presented to Major (Ret'd) Don Kennedy on Nov. 18th.
